

Operation: E.A.E.

The Unguided

We sacrificed everything
To infiltrate the cage
Of this self-proclaimed God
Ready at the entrance of Hell
You might have diamond skin
But you will never escape our irradiated fury
We will take the power back
And put an end to this conflict
A whole race at gunpoint, Six wraiths were lost
Uncounted human casualties
(That's) the damage you have done

They built walls not to keep us out
But to keep them in
All places, all things have souls
(And) all souls can be devoured
Be devoured
Your bionic eyes
Won't witness another sunrise
The torment of your kind
Won't ever defeat us

A whole race at gunpoint, Six wraiths were lost
Uncounted human casualties
(That's) the damage you have done, You have done

They built walls not to keep us out
But to keep them in
All places, all things have souls
(And) all souls can be devoured

This is a broken world Emanate and Eradicate
This is a broken world Emanate and Eradicate
Six years and a day, Make it rain, bullets and flames
Bring forth Heaven's Bane, The cog must be destroyed

As free men we will rise again tomorrow

They built walls not to keep us out
But to keep them in
All places, all things have souls
(And) all souls can be devoured
They built walls to keep them in

This is a broken world Emanate and Eradicate
This is a broken world Emanate and Eradicate
Six years and a day, Make it rain, bullets and flames
Bring forth Heaven's Bane, The cog must be destroyed
