

William, Clap Your Hands

The Unicorns

clap your hands if you want some clap your hands if you can't wait take your things I stole they worked sufficiently but not great I'd stay for scoldings but I am late look if they're not there, then they've been sold (is that not OK?)

William, it's your own fault oh, let it rest on the sabbath day learn to stand and sway (clap your hands it'll be ok) dancez vous the night today it's all gone anyway
