

Ringer

The Unlikely Candidates

She's a ringer
Put a ring, put a ring, put a ring around her finger
Put a ring, put a ring, put a ring

There's a lady, got a lot of ambition
Shady's my intuition
Says she's a doctor cause she's got the pills
She's just a ringer who lives in the hills
So crazy, don't know if I can trust her
Lately, she's talking like a hustler
She could be the American dream
I'd do anything for her to marry me

She's worth her weight in gold
But one thing I know

She's a ringer
Put a ring, put a ring, put a ring around her finger
Gotta know, gotta know, gotta know
She's a ringer
Put a ring, put a ring, put a ring around her finger
Gotta know, gotta know, gotta know

She's a lady, gonna be richer than her daddy
Thirsty she's sipping on a forty
Her love is free, but it won't come cheap
She'll rob all the boys if their shit's too weak
She told me her love is like the dollar
Greedy 'cause I never really had her
She won't be my American dream
Won't wear my ring
She said it won't fit me

She's worth her weight in gold
But one thing I know

She's a ringer
Put a ring, put a ring, put a ring around her finger
Gotta know, gotta know, gotta know
She's a ringer
Put a ring, put a ring, put a ring around her finger
Gotta know, gotta know, gotta know

She looks so hungry to me with her golden teeth
Will I ever be enough?
Move or she might knock you out
Only five foot three, the world won't be enough

She's a ringer
Put a ring, put a ring, put a ring around her finger
Put a ring, put a ring, put a ring
She's a ringer
Put a ring, put a ring, put a ring around her finger
Gotta know, gotta know, gotta know
She's a ringer
Put a ring, put a ring, put a ring around her finger
Gotta know, gotta know, gotta know

Put a ring, put a ring, put a ring around her finger
Put a ring, put a ring, put a ring around her finger
