

Flames Have Destroyed

The Unseen

You walk the path
Now deal with it
The problems you have made
Go prove to them that you have changed
So tarnished memories can fade
The tide's coming in
But will it wash away the times
The times you disappointed them

The times you made them cry
Where can you turn
The flames have destroyed
Yah can you rebuild
The bridge that you burned
The patience to reconstruct
Or let ashes wash away

Yah
Fight for what you want
Let nothing stand in your way.
