

Clean Cut Heals

The Used

Keep your jacket on. I packed your suitcase
Those are words I never want to hear you say
But I'd rather have you put it out there
Instead of pushing away

Don't hold on to me for a minute
You're cold dead to me - if you're not in it
If I'm blinded take the blindfold off
If you don't you know that I'll stay

I will never leave. Maybe you should go
Cause a clean cut heals more beautiful
I will never leave. Don't know how to quit
Even though we both had enough of it
Yea, we've been hurting each other soft and slow
Yea, we've been killing each other blow by blow
I will never leave. Maybe you should go
Cause a clean cut heals more beautiful

Did I make you cry on your last birthday
Wouldn't surprise me, sounds like something I would do
Did I ever try to see things your way
You know that I can't stand to lose

I will never leave. Maybe you should go
Cause a clean cut heals more beautiful
I will never leave. Don't know how to quit
Even though we both had enough of it
Yea, we've been hurting each other soft and slow
Yea, we've been killing each other blow by blow
I will never leave. Maybe you should go
Cause a clean cut heals more beautiful

Am I too bad for ya? Am I too reckless?
Am I too sad for ya? I'm too reckless baby
Am I too sad for ya? You're too pretty pretty Am I too bad for ya? I'm too reckless

I will never leave. Maybe you should go
Cause a clean cut heals more beautiful
I will never leave. Don't know how to quit
Even though we both had enough of it
Yea, we've been hurting each other soft and slow
Yea, we've been killing each other blow by blow
I will never leave. Maybe you should go
Cause a clean cut heals more beautiful
