

For You

The Used

To immortality almost, we wanted to write a song, it was like if I had five minutes to hold Tregen's hand, and if he had five minutes to hold his dad's hand...what would it be? Like, what could we possibly say in those (what would you say?) moments?

I think I caught it in the chorus. I would say, "All I want to say to you is that your love never leaves me alone, and now you're right here. Hold my hand. Every single song I ever sing is for you."

It feels so good. This is as close as I'll get you know? He is right here

(Let's do it. He's right here too. Love you bro.)

Love you too

(Ready? Alright)

First I was afraid of you
I knew you were afraid of me too
I did not know what to say
I saw your eyes closed and I knew
Though worlds apart your love it keeps the distance quite imaginary

All I want to say to you
Is that your love never leaves me alone
And now you're right here; hold my hand
Every single song I ever sing is for you
Is for you
Is for you

While I have your ear I need you to know
And though it sounds cliché
You made me the man that I am today
It would be more than disrespectful if I did not sing it loud

All I want to say to you
Is that your love never leaves me alone
And now you're right here; hold my hand
Every single song I ever sing is for you
Is for you
Is for you

Breath
You're keeping me worn
Like a squire
The quiet war
Suspicious acoustics
Leave cored empty spaces
Tracing my love escaped mercy's said blessings to carnage; to taste it: A chance just to take it in

All of it
All of it
All of it
Just so many words

All I want to say to you

Is that your love never leaves me alone
And now you're right here; hold my hand
Every single song I ever sing is for you
Is for you
Is for you

And now you're right here; hold my hand
Every single song I ever sing is for you
Is for you
It's for you
