

I Come Alive

The Used

breathing in now,
i start counting my blessings.
picturing the last time i said.
beg forgiveness,
with some words that mean nothing,
illusions like smoke in my breath.
i come alive,
when i'm falling down.
i let myself go,
till i hit the ground.
when i'm there at the edge,
in this moment i feel it i know.
come alive when i'm falling down.
air is thin now.
while my lungs are collapsing,
vertigo blankets my head.
far from reckless,
when i'm comfortable, thought
that i know i could never forget.
that i know i could never forget.
i come alive,
when i'm falling down.
i let myself go,
till i hit the ground.
when i'm there at the edge,
in this moment i feel it i know.
yeah
keep your distance,
far away from me.
watch this eat me alive
keep your distance,
far away from me
watch this eat me alive.
i come alive,
when i'm falling down.
i let myself go,
till i hit the ground.
when i'm there at the edge,
in this moment i feel it i know.
come alive when i'm falling down.
yeah!
i come alive..
