

Moving the Mountain (Odysseus Surrenders)

The Used

In climbing up
I'm not surprised by where I've come
Odysseus surrenders

Eyes wide for the gun
The cave, the canyon, on my own
Crusade refined defender

We're so close
My love
The push of the moment
I needed to feel it

We're so close
My love
To moving the mountain
I needed to feel it
We're moving the mountain

Never learned to play the part
I broke the plans by givin' it up
Yet not defined by what I've done

For finite, for forever
Raise a glass
We drink from the sun

Do soldiers ever sleep through the night?
We'll sing the moon together

We're so close
My love
The push of the moment
I needed to feel it

We're so close
My love
To moving the mountain
I needed to feel it
We're moving the mountain

Like pulling bodies from the womb
We hold hands and play god
We create roses
And while I'm off to war
She's pulling the bodies from the womb
She's pulling the bodies from the womb

We're so close
My love
The push of the moment
I needed to feel it

We're so close
My love
To moving the mountain

We're so close
My love

We're moving the mountain
