

Tuck and Roll

The Vaccines

What's bitching about tuck and roll?
Oh I hate being out of control
But you had to call, all the shots
And your high, when your not, are you not?
Oh I'm grinding my teeth and I'm carving a mud chopper jaw
It's just something new that I've never considered before

Oh where are you at?
I need a drink
Oh look at that, I wish we waited
I'm calling back who ever is calling
I made it up, but the truth is appalling

You said you gave up, but forgot
So is it appealing, or what?
Oh, ain't it a curious thing, when your finger's too fat for yo ur ring?
Would you bee more happy, if life was just strait down a line
Maybe its better to be punishing by them by desire

Oh where are at?
I need a drink
Oh look at that, I wish we waited
I'm calling back whoever is calling
I made it up but the truth is appalling

Where are you at, I need a drink?
Oh look at that I wish we waited
I'm calling back whoever is calling
I made it up but the truth is appalling x3
