

Breathe in Breathe out
Let me show you everything

Can you feel the pressure rising
Inside of your chest?
Don't you worry
It will fade in a moment
Can you still tell apart reality
From fiction?
Don't you feel rejected
This is right where you belong

Are you still alive?

Is this everything you dreamed of?
A city of light where hearts get fixed
A kingdom of mercy for the lost

Trust your eyes
Believe in what you see
Listen closely
The trees are talking
Hear them moving
Growing

Adrift
Out of the frame
You fall

Downside up
The roots are growing back to the source

Faster and faster
The shapes begin to alter
What seemed so real
Was a promise of deception

Stay awake
You're not alone
Don't let it take you down this road
Reflections of a bitter past
Won't rule over you
