

Elusive Reasons

The Valuator Time

Just another day in this messed up world, I delete and rewind
For a moment I take in all the silence that's surrounding us Moving on, forgetting about the lives we could be leading While the engines move and the lights still flash
I'm staying deaf and blind
All within, everything on the outside
Like a twist of nature's destined path
We seek forgiveness in the arms of our own consciousness

I am the one, I am no one

So I will live to tell of all these nights I drown in this
Will I ever stop believing there is hope for the footsteps we're leaving
For elusive reasons we're all born with a hole in our hearts
For elusive reasons we're all destined to drift apart

This is the last chance to escape, my ticket to salvation
I can see the light shine through the door, my only way out of here
This is the last chance to escape, my ticket to salvation
I can see the light shine through the door
This is the moment it has finally come and will take me away
I move into the light, my only way out of here

All within, everything on the outside
Like a twist of nature's destined path
We seek forgiveness in the arms of our own consciousness
For elusive reasons, for elusive reasons

So I will live to tell of all these nights I drown in this
leaving
For elusive reasons we're all born with a hole in our hearts
For elusive reasons we're all destined to drift apart
