

Higher

The Vamps

Does it hit like a bullet my darling
Whenever you hear that song?
Does it take you a moment to realize
All that you knew is gone?

Does it feel like the seconds are hours?
Has the clock frozen in time?
Do you tell everyone whose around you
That love ruins you heart with its lies
Do you wait until you can pretend
You're okay and it starts again

If everything's changing I need you to know
That the hardest decision
Was letting you go
Searching for moments that we shared before

When you took me higher higher
You took me higher higher
You took me higher higher

One hundred and sixty-eight hours
Since I stepped off that train
For the questions
I don't have the answer
Nothing I feel is the same
No nothing is left I'm to blame

If everything's changing I need you to know
That the hardest decision
Was letting you go
Searching for moments
That we shared before

I cling to the memory how you came to me
Counting the hours like I watched you sleep
No nothing else matters like you did for me

When you took me higher higher
You took me higher higher
You took me higher higher

And I switch off burn out
Give up I shout out
All of the days became one
And I walk home alone
I hide away from my phone
Nothing is right now you're gone

If everything's changing I need you to know
That the hardest decision
Was letting you go
Searching for moments that we shared before
I cling to the memory how you came to me
I'm counting the hours like I watched you sleep
No nothing else matters like you did for me

When you took me higher higher
You took me higher higher
You took me higher higher
...
