

Would You

The Vamps

Tell me how you really feel
So I know it's really real
And won't you let your guard down?
If there's a reason you're holding back
I'd rather know now

'Cause when you kiss me you had your eyes open
And there's something that I need to know

If I walked out the door would you even notice I'm gone?
Would you even miss me at all?
Would you, would you?
If I walked out the door would you care enough to follow?
Would you even miss me at all?
Would you, would you, you?

Don't go wasting my time
I've played games enough to see through a lie
And I wonder how you talk 'bout us
Do you light up when you start to speak?
If I even cross your mind at all

When you kiss me you had your eyes open
And there's something that I need to know

If I walked out the door would you even notice I'm gone?
Would you even miss me at all?
Would you, would you?
If I walked out the door would you care enough to follow?
Would you even miss me at all?
Would you, would you, you?

Would you even miss me at all, babe?
Would you even miss me?
Would you even miss me at all, babe?
Would you even miss me?

When you kiss me you had your eyes open
And there's something that I need to know

If I walked out the door would you even notice I'm gone?
Would you even miss me at all?
Would you, would you?
If I walked out the door would you care enough to follow?
Would you even miss me at all?
Would you, would you, you?

Would you even miss me at all, babe?
Would you even miss me?
Would you even miss me at all, babe?
Would you even miss me?
