I Believe

The Vandals

I believe the children are the future, teach them well and let them know things may be all shit right now, but it gets worse when your old

Happy meals and Easter bunny, great moments indeed Enjoy it now while you still can cuz I believe

I believe in miracles and dreams can come true especially the ones where your teeth fall out or you're naked at school

even sleeping brings us pain we never get no relief
But that's how it's meant to be that's what I believe

What ever happen to trust?

come on people

It's what we need

Stop confusing the issues with facts

Cuz me for one,

I still believe

I believe in the written word if it's on paper it's true it's all gospel as far as I'm concerned if somebody wrote it it's good enough for me

why be so suspicious of the ones who tried to keep you informed? they give you the things you need that's why I believe
