

Hatred

The Varukers

Beliefs passed down generation
Of ignorance and lies
Open your closed mind
You'll be surprised what you may find

Fear hatred lies
You decide
Fear hatred lies
You decide

There's good and bad
In all people every color country and creed
Don't accept the indoctrination
Don't believe what they perceive

Fear hatred lies
You decide
Fear hatred lies
You decide

Fill your head with hatred
Reject their fear and despise
What side of the fence
Do you stand on its time to decide

Fear hatred lies
You decide
