

Send No Letter

The Velvet Underground

Send me no letter, I'm a-getting better
Standing in my own two feet
Don't you bother writing, we'll just end up fighting
Don't bother being so sweet

I gave you my car, I gave you my house
And then you go and you throw me out

Send me no letter, I'm a-getting better
Send me no letter, I'm a-getting better
See you some other bad day

Send me no letter, I'm a-getting better
Broken hearts are mending fast
And what you did to me to make me so gloomy
Well, I'm getting over it fast

I wanted you for the girl in my life
I wanted you for my little ol' wife

Send me no letter, I'm a-getting better
Send me no letter, I'm a-getting better
See you some other bad day

Uh, ah
Uh, ah
Uh, ah
Chicky-chicky-chicky
Uh, ah
Uh, ah

Well, send me no letter, I'm a-getting better
Send me no letter, I'm a-getting better
Standing in my own two feet
Don't you bother writing, just end up fighting
Don't bother being so sweet

I gave you my car, I gave you my house
Turned right around and you're throwing me out

Send me no letter, I'm a-getting better
Send me no letter, I'm a-getting better
Send me no letter, I'm a-getting better
See you some other bad day

Well, send me no letter, I'm a-getting better
My broken heart is mending fast
What you did to me to make me so gloomy
Well, I'm a-getting over it fast

I wanted you for the girl in my life
I wanted you for my little ol' wife

Send me no letter, I'm a-getting better
Send me no letter, I'm a-getting better
See you some other bad day
Well, see you some other bad day

See you, see you some other bad day
Well, some other bad other
Some other bad day
Some, some, some other bad day
Some, some, some other bad day
