

Choking

The Velveteers

We're sorry, you have reached a number that has been disconnected or is no longer in service

Speak light, talks light
Do what you please
I never wanted your opinion
You force-fed it to me

And what does it mean
When you call me on the phone and you act like you want me?
Insecurity
Well, it's in your voice and you're ch-ch-ch-choking

Two-face, head case blowing my mind
You cut your tongue off with a razor at the scene of the crime

And what does it mean
When you call me on the phone and you act like you want me?
Insecurity
Well, it's in your voice and you're ch-ch-ch-choking

Tell me one thing
Tell me one thing
What does it mean?
What does it mean?

What does it mean
When you call me on the phone and you act like you want me?
Insecurity
Well, it's in your voice and you're ch-ch-ch-choking
In your voice and you're ch-ch-ch-choking
In your voice and you're ch-ch-ch-choking
