

Jungle

The Veronicas

I once knew a girl, she was 5'2"
She was walking down the street with her brand-new boots
Yeah, Little Johnny saw her walking and he wanted them too
Too bad, Johnny! You can't have 'em 'cause they'll never fit yo u

There was a boy who couldn't swim
And he liked a girl he thought was too good for him
So he watched her fall in love and she married a lass
Too bad, baby, you can't have her 'cause no man has

Oh no, no one cares
Life ain't always fair
It's a jungle out there
Life ain't always fair
It's a jungle out there

Found an alligator stuck in a lake
With an appetite that no one could appreciate
A camp of kids came rolling in
The lesson learned that day was how to sink or swim

I once knew a lady who deserved a promotion
Yeah, the smartest woman in the room, so devoted
But her boss, he told her it would cost her body to get it
So she shot in him six times and told him he could forget it

Oh no, no one cares
Life ain't always fair
It's a jungle out there
Life ain't always fair
It's a jungle out there

So sad, baby
Don't it make you wanna cry about it?

Life ain't always fair
It's a jungle out there