The View

Penny!

Hey Penny with your apron on
Cooking up a bottle of fuzz
You'd do more damage with your wellies on
Running for the python bus

You could be up at the crook anytime of the day
You could be up at the crook anytime of the day
You could be up at the crook anytime of the day
You could be up at the crook anytime of the day (Ohh)

Hey Penny with your protein pills
Looking out your pictures for clues
And don't ask me when your man comes from
Cause you act as if you've nothing lose

And I don't mind you and all the silly little things you do
So you shouldn't me and all the silly little things I do

You could be up at the crook anytime of the day
You could be up at the crook anytime of the day
You could be up at the crook anytime of the day
You could be up at the crook anytime of the day (Ohh)

And I don't mind you and all the silly little things you do
So you shouldn't me and all the silly little things I do
Just to get you
Oh, I'll admit it I want you to listen to me!

You could be up at the crook anytime of the day
You could be up at the crook anytime of the day
You could be up at the crook anytime of the day
You could be up at the crook anytime of the day (Ohh)

I need a second to tie my shoes
I'm gonna tie my shoes and come find you
I need a second to tie my lace
I'm gonna tie my lace for your embrace
Living in the moment at the beggar's ball
She doesn't have balls to stand so tall
Coming round the corner from the patients view an'
Thankful I don't take em' all

I need a second to tie my shoes
I'm gonna tie my shoes and come find you
I need a second to tie my lace
I'm gonna tie my lace for your embrace
The beat goes faster but the lippy tongue
And words like that make me feel young
Keep on spitting at the cavalry
It's this town of the century

I need a second to tie my shoes
I'm gonna tie my shoes and come find you
I need a second to tie my lace
I'm gonna tie my lace for your embrace

I need a second to tie my shoes
I'm gonna tie my shoes and come find you
I need a second to tie my lace
Tie my lace for your embrace

I need a second to tie my shoes
I'm gonna tie my shoes and come find you
I need a second to tie my lace
I'm gonna tie my lace for your embrace
