The Vintage Caravan

With you by my side
We float in the winds of change
We fly home again
We glide in the pouring rain

Pull me back
As we cross this bridge in time
Sunflowers in shades of grey
Be that as it may

Sealed and sailed away
It's everything they say
The same from day to day
Same carnival in everyway

Pull me back
As we cross this bridge in time
Sunflowers in shades of grey
Be that as it may
Sunflowers in shades of grey
Be that as it may
