

Sharp Teeth

The Vintage Caravan

Falling into
My old way of life
Imperfections
So hard to hide

Struggling
To keep in line
Stay right here
Or follow the signs

I'm the one that's left behind
Lost myself and now I'm blind

Here again
Crash and burn
Face my fears
I won't learn

How can I
Find my way back
Reality
Has become black

I'm the one that's left behind
Lost myself and now I'm blind
