The Violent

Gonna make a mess now
Settled on life
Choosing the light
And I'm choosing the wise
Look at me now
Maybe somehow
You can see the fight from your bed
Take off the Filter
Straight through the lens
Your brain is fucked up
And your vision is bent
Turn another page
Learn another skill
One that you hate but do well
Hate but do well

There's a lot of pressure on me
To make an impression on you
You watch too closely
While ignoring all the things that you do
There's an affection to me
But like an obsession to you
You watch too closely
Miss the sleight of hand stealing from you

Hidden in a bright place
Dancing like a sin
You are missing it now
You were missing it then
Look at you now
Maybe somehow
You could play yourself for a change
Looking for shelter
Give me the rain
Over you now
While you're living in shame
Turn another page
Find another tale
One that won't swat 'til you fail
You've become frail

There's a lot of pressure on me
To make an impression on you
You watch too closely
While ignoring all the things that you do
There's an affection to me
But like an obsession to you
You watch too closely
Miss the sleight of hand stealing from you
You watch too closely

Well who's watching who Who's watching who
Who's watching you
Who's watching who

Who's watching who
Who's watching who
Who's watchin'

Ooooooo ahhhhhhhhh

I'm always alone when deep in a crowd, yeah

I'm always alone when deep in a crowd, yeah eh
With eyes to clouds and ear to ground yeah eh
With eyes to clouds and ear to the ground
Yeah air air air air

There's a lot of pressure on me
To make an impression on you
You watch too closely
While ignoring all the things that you do
But like an obsession to you
You watch too closely
Miss the sleight of hand stealing from you
You watch too closely
Miss the sleight of hand stealing from you
You watch too closely
Miss the sleight of hand stealing from you
