Think For Yourself

The Violent

I get the feeling you've been feeling this way for a while now
(Think for yourself)
There's nobody here who disagrees
So just speak up your mind now
(Think for yourself)

Guided by evil, dressed as the priest
Preach to the choir, you know they believe
Block the opinions of those who don't see
And be the one to open your mind to set it free

Don't leave it to fate to get what you need
Controlled by the powers to be
Blinded by hate
And guided by greed
Applaud me so everyone sees
Closing your mind is such a disease
(So why don't you think for yourself?)

The blood in your mouth is staining your teeth
From biting your tongue now (Speak for yourself)
They'll disagree until they see
That you've said nothing wrong now (Speak for yourself)

Guided by evil, dressed as the priest
Preach to the choir, you know they believe
Block the opinions of those who don't see
And be the one to open your mind to set it free

Don't leave it to fate to get what you need
Controlled by the powers to be
Blinded by hate
And guided by greed
Applaud me so everyone sees

Closing your mind is such a disease
So why don't you think for yourself?
Why don't you think for yourself?

Think for yourself, won't you
Think for yourself, won't you
Think for yourself, won't you
Think for yourself, won't you
Think for yourself, won't you
Think for yourself, won't you
Think for yourself, won't you
Think for yourself, won't you
(You are the virus and you're the disease)

Don't leave it to fate to get what you need
Controlled by the powers to be
Blinded by hate
And guided by greed
Applaud me so everyone sees
Don't leave it to fate to get what you need
Controlled by the powers to be
Blinded by hate

And guided by greed
Applaud me so everyone sees

Closing your mind is such a disease
So, why don't you think for yourself?
Why don't you think for yourself?
