

Patience
Really looks good on you
Patience
Isn't here just to hurt you

Brave enough to
Not cover up all your bruises
Stay up
No one wants to see you lose it

But I can't breathe
Without you here anymore

The rain comes
You'll soon be under me
(You will soon be under me)
Afraid of
All you thought was fleeting into me

I can't breathe
Without you here anymore
(So I'll stay here all alone)
I can't breath
Without you here anymore
(So I'll just stay here all alone)

Patience
You don't want to see me lose it
Patience
You don't want to see me lose it

You know I'm crazy and you don't want this side to come out
