First Day

The Walker Brothers

Seen it running through your life
You think someone would let you see
Knowing that you know
He should know by now
No-one's going to set you free
No-one's going to set you free

Heading through a wind storm
Wondering why you were born
Doing all the things that you try
Standing on the outside
Looking at the inside
Nothing keeps you satisfied
Nothing keeps you satisfied

Everyday is the first day
And Lord how long it can be
Making your way ain't so easy
But it shows you how much you believe
I'll show you just how much you believe

Everyday is the first day
And Lord how long it can be
Making your way ain't so easy
But it shows you how much you believe
I'll show you just how much you believe
