

Inside of You

The Walker Brothers

I have been lonely
Lost and forgotten
Crying at sun-down
Bird in the mountain
The beauty of that freedom
Can't match the beauty of what I feel
When I'm inside of you

I've been young man
Riding at day-break
Hearing my footsteps
The sound that the wind makes
Prisoner of my past
Held by dreams that never last
I can only be myself
When I'm inside of you

All of the lonely smiles
Broken dreams and endless miles
All of the days and years
The promises that held back tears
Disappear

Always on the outside
Never knowing why
Then you let me in your heart
It felt so good to cry
And I feel like I belong
When I'm inside of you

And when I'm long gone
Rolling in darkness
All of my sad songs
Resting in silence
No matter where my soul may be
I will have a memory
Of what it was to be
Inside of you

No matter where my soul may be
I will have a memory
Of what it was to be
Inside of you