

Eyes For You

The Walters

First time that I saw you there
I felt so unprepared
I always give into to fears and
Now life seems so clear

'Cause I only have eyes for you
I only want something true, yeah, I do
I only have eyes for you

So long to the life I knew
You helped me through and through
Our love isn't always new but
It sure is the one that I choose

'Cause I only have eyes for you
I only want something true, yeah, I do
I only have eyes for you

'Cause I only have eyes for you
