

I Wanna Be Good

The Walters

I
Woke up today
With an aching pain
And I couldn't shake it

I tried
To ease the pain
With a bottle of booze
But it wouldn't do it

I ran
Ran to the store
To grab some
Medicine to soothe it

But all
All that it did
Was wipe
The memory of you babe

And I can't be good to you
But I wanna be good to you

Oh
The weather is
Gonna change
In a few months babe

And all
All of this snow
Will melt
Into the yard

And I
Cleaned off my sheets for
I just need your loving
I
Cleaned off my sheets for
I just need your loving

But I can't be good to you
But I want to be good to you

She smilin' right at me and I feel it in my knees but
I don't wanna trust no one
She smilin' right at me and I feel it in my knees but
I don't wanna trust no one
She's climbin' right at me and I've kept it in my teeth, oh
I don't wanna trust no one
