The Walters

My life is changing with the wind
I'm caught up once again
In something I can't fix, yeah
And you're the better part of me
Every time you leave
I want to disappear

From all the things that brought us here
Who knows where we'll be this time next year

So stay a while, we've reached the end
And once we leave we can't come back again
So stay a while and sit with me
Watch the credits roll on the TV

Why be afraid of life
When there's so much more waiting 'round the corner
Your heart's beating down like rain
You don't feel a thing so you never see it coming

From all the things that brought us here
Who knows where we'll be this time next year
I say

So stay a while, we've reached the end
And once we leave we can't come back again
So stay a while and sit with me
Watch the credits roll on the TV
Whoa oh oh, oh oh oh
On the tv
Whoa oh oh, oh oh oh

Why be afraid of life
When there's so much more waiting 'round the corner
But you're so afraid to die
You don't realize that you're never moving forward

And why be afraid of life
When there's so much more waiting 'round the corner
But you're so afraid to die
You don't realize that you're never moving forward

So stay a while, we've reached the end
And once we leave we can't come back again
