The Wannadies

How many days gone by, I don't know anyone no more I feel shy, going for a walk, Sky blue sky And (?), let them go Can't see me now, I see the world and you You're not allowed, I see the world go round Can't see me now, I see you How many days gone by, I don't know why we have to fight It's not me, eating up the words, All I give People still want me, let me go Can't see me now, I see the world and you You're not allowed, I see the world go round Can't see me now, Can't see me now, I see you How many days gone by, Many dreams have died, I don't care
