

Something To Tell

The Wannadies

These are hard days my friend our salad days
have come to an end Picking up all these pieces isn't all that easy

But I won't cry
You know the reason why

I've got something to tell you
some confession
I've got something to tell you
some confession

Cowards laugh when they lie while she's home wondering why She's been given that cruel blow they don't care at all She doesn't know what everybody knows

I've got something to tell you
some confession
I've got something to tell you
some confession

With calm in her eyes
I hear her say

If you don't come my way
I have to go away
And if I go away...
- What a sad day
I've got something to tell you
some confession
I've got something to tell you
some confession

With calm in her eyes
I hear her say
If you don't come my way
I can't stay
