

Hearts

The War And Treaty

On this road I've learned it doesn't make sense
Without you, without you
And I would rather be a passenger on a moving train
If it meant I'd be next to you
By the skin of my teeth and the hairs on my head
I'd be lost if I didn't have you
Just a ball of confusion, a life left in void
That's what I'd be without you

Because right would be wrong if we spent time alone
Separate in the dark, with the light still left on
It wouldn't do much to try to keep our love apart
'Cause we'd find each others' hearts
Hearts, hearts, hearts
We'd find each others' hearts

In this life, I have learned it don't mean a thing
Without you, without you
And I would rather be a cripple using you as my cane
If it meant I could lean on you

Because right would be wrong if we spent time alone
Separate in the dark, with the light still left on
It wouldn't do much to try to keep our love apart
'Cause we'd find each others' hearts
Hearts, hearts, hearts
Hearts, hearts, hearts, hearts
We'd find each others' hearts

Gimme a sign that I'm doing things right
Darling, stand in the rain and watch me shine
We've got a reason to keep our love growing strong
Everything between us helps us move along

'Cause we'd find each others' hearts
Hearts, hearts, hearts
Hearts, hearts, hearts, hearts
We'd find each others' hearts
