

AMOUR

The Warning

Let's be lonely together
Who knows what we'll become?
Like two birds of a feather
A pair of broken hearts in one
We keep running from our feelings
Running in circles to see what we may find
It's a game that we're playing
But it's a game that we both like

Plead for me, bleed for me
Show me that I'm worth it, am I worth it?
Plead for me, bleed for me
Do you love and hate me? Would you make me
Plead for you, bleed for you?
Prove that I am willing, are you willing
To plead for me, bleed for me?
Say if I were dying

Would you die for me?
Would you die for me?
Now would you die?

Don't you think it's too easy
To love the light we show?
It is only in shadows
Where the truth is finally known
Come a little closer, tear me apart
Like you promised that you would
Life is better when broken
You get just what you think you should

Plead for me, bleed for me
Show me that I'm worth it, am I worth it?
Plead for me, bleed for me
Do you love and hate me? Would you make me
Plead for you, bleed for you?
Prove that I am willing, are you willing
To plead for me, bleed for me?
Say if I were dying

Would you die for me?
Would you die for me?
Now would you die?

Je t'aime pour toujours
Mon coeur est tien
Je te deteste amour de ma vie
Je ne mens pas je t'adore
Plead for me, bleed for me (For me)
Plead for me, bleed for me (For me)
Plead for me, bleed for me
Show me that I'm worth it, am I worth it?
Plead for me, bleed for me
Say if I were dying

Would you die for me?
Would you die for me?

Now would you die for me?

Yeah

Die for me
