

CHOKE

The Warning

Drown

Drown

Let me find a piece of my mind
That isn't trying to leave me behind
Maybe you should let me go
'Cause I need to know what happy looks like Maybe six feet underground
Let me get relief in the clouds
Is it drowning
If you hold your own head down?

Just let me drown
Let me drown
Let me dive in, sink in deeper
Push my head, choke me 'til I drown
Let me

Let me
Just let me drown

Drifting out of trust
Slipping down my throat into my lungs
It's cold, but this is where I'll stay
Then they ask why we can't breathe
Dying inside, asking, "Why is it me?"
Begging that someone keeps holding you down
And you'll drown (Uh), I can't keep running around
I got a smoke in my lungs, I feel the fire beneath Give me the reason to fight and they got to come feel when I'm hiving these streets (Let me drown)
I couldn't have seen this coming, it would've been dragging it down on my knees
You bleed me out 'cause I don't got what you need

Let me dive in, sink in deeper
Push my head, choke me 'til I drown
Let me

Drown
Let me
Just let me drown
