

CHOKER

The Warning

I won't say goodbye
In the end, it won't matter at all
I'm sure
I won't survive the fall

Wear your tears like jewelry
That vice is overpriced, but
Art is dead, it died with me
Don't cry

Just let me drown
Let me drown
Let me dive in, sink in deeper
Push my head, choke me 'til I drown
Let me drown

Drifting out of trust
Slipping down my throat into my lungs
It's cold, but this is where I'll stay
Comfortably in pain

Wear your tears like jewelry
That vice is overpriced, but
Art is dead, it died with me
Don't cry

Just let me drown
Let me drown
Let me dive in, sink in deeper
Push my head, choke me 'til I drown

Like a machine, every day, I'm on hold
Breathe in, breathe out
I keep on waiting, tearing at my will
I wish I would just stop

Let me drown
Let me drown
Let me dive in, sink in deeper
Push my head, choke me 'til I drown
Let me drown
Let me drown
Let me dive in, sink in deeper
Push my head, choke me 'til I drown
Let me drown
