

DISCIPLE

The Warning

The sun is your enemy today
Have you heard the news that the world isn't ending?
It's starting again
But all the nonbelievers, they keep on pretending
The sun is your enemy today
You love to look away from the face of your vices
Embrace them instead
And welcome yourself into the new modern crisis

Oh
Oh, I've been waiting
Oh
Disciple in the making

Kill the system, kill the man
Strip the power from their hands
Your eyes will bleed as you stare at the screen
You shall remain inside your space
Two, three, go

The sun is my enemy today
I'm running from the misery like there's no tomorrow
Let's share it with them
And show all the world that this life isn't borrowed time

Oh
Oh, I've been waiting
Oh
Disciple in the making

Kill the system, kill the man
Strip the power from their hands
Your eyes will bleed as you stare at the screen
You shall remain inside your space

Swimming with the fishes 'til they drown
Love is just another excuse we rely on
Palpable, but hidden in the sound
Hate will always be a good friend when the sun goes down

Oh
Oh, hear my calling
Oh
Nonbelievers start running
Oh
Oh, I've been waiting
Oh
Disciple in the making

Kill the system, kill the man
Strip the power from their hands
Your eyes will bleed as you stare at the screen
You shall remain inside your space
Of ignorance
