

Escapism

The Warning

Get me out of my head
Drag me out of my bed and make me
Move around to forget
There is time that needs to be wasted
To feel something instead
I will dive in my own delusions
Draping mirrors again
Safe inside of my own illusion

It's the hope that kills you

So I close my eyes till it all fades
And so I close my eyes then it all fades
Yet I'm still aching, breaking, trying again
But I'll just close my eyes till it all fades

Stepping into the void
Even if it amounts to nothing
Silence is to avoid
Reaching out to hold on to something
I wish I could enjoy
Worthless means of communicating
Words that only destroy
Leave me, feeling, fearing oh

I just close my eyes till it all fades
And so I close my eyes then it all fades
Yet I'm still aching, breaking, trying again
But I'll just close my eyes till it all fades

I can't help but feel
I can't tell what's real

It's the hope that kills you

So I close my eyes till it all fades
And so I close my eyes then it all fades
Yet I'm still aching, breaking, trying again
But I'll just close my eyes till it all fades

Close my eyes till at all-
Close my eyes till at all-
Yet I'm still aching, breaking, trying again
But I'll just close my eyes till it all fades
