Free Falling

The Warning

I put my life in your hands
I gave you my trust
And I believed every lie
That came out of your mouth
I'm getting soaked in my tears
Drowning in my fears

I believe that we had a chance
But it all went away with a single glance

Nothing has changed, I'm crashing through space
I'm burning up and there's nothing that can put out this flame
You killed my dreams, burned my wings
Now I'm crying and screaming and cursing, you're calling
While I'm free falling

You took my fantasies
Turned my world upside down
You wore me down not knowing
You were hurting me this much
Now I can't go back
There'll be no more of us

I believe that we had a chance
But it all went away with a single glance

Nothing has changed, I'm crashing through space
I'm burning up and there's nothing that can put out this flame
You killed my dreams, burned my wings
Now I'm crying and screaming and cursing, you're calling
While I'm free falling

I believe that we had a chance

And nothing will change, I'm crashing through space
I'm burning up and there's nothing that can put out this flame
You killed my dreams, burned my wings
Now I'm crying and screaming and cursing, you're calling
While I'm free (Falling)

Fall (Fall, fall, free falling)
(Fall, fall, free falling)
(Fall, fall, free falling)
(Fall, fall, free falling)
All (Fall, fall, free falling)
(Fall, fall, free falling)
(Fall, fall, free falling)
Free falling
