

Hell You Call A Dream

The Warning

I've been invaded by the need to stay inside this cage
Day after day I'm hurting but I choose to stay this way
Running out of things to say
Isn't it normal to love what we hate?
It's draining me out just the same
I'm in too deep

Give me something to believe
Oh oh oh oh
In this hell you call a dream
Oh oh oh oh
Colliding every time
The chaos drives me
Wild like an animal
Just wanna breathe
Oh oh oh oh
In this hell you call a dream

My vision's blurry as the pain keeps crawling up my skin
The pressure's building and I'm on the verge of caving in Ready and out for the kill if
This can't bring me to life then what will?
Suffering just for the thrill
I'm in too deep

Give me something to believe
Oh oh oh oh
In this hell you call a dream
Oh oh oh oh
Colliding every time
The chaos drives me
Wild like an animal
Just wanna breathe
Oh oh oh oh
In this hell you call a dream

Eyes are always open in the dark
I've been under water right from the start
Rope is wearing thin I can't take anymore
More!

Give me something to believe
Oh oh oh oh
In this hell you call a dream
Oh oh oh oh
Colliding every time
The chaos drives me
Wild like an animal
Just wanna breathe
Oh oh oh oh

Maybe I don't wanna be!
Oh oh oh oh
In this hell you call a dream
Oh oh oh oh
Colliding every time
The chaos drives me

Wild like an animal
Just wanna breathe
Oh oh oh oh
In this hell you call a dream
