

REVENANT

The Warning

Dear boy
Tell me where you're running off to now, boy
Who will be the one to break your fall, boy?
Dear boy
Forget all closure and start hiding now, boy
'Cause it's about time that they hunt you down, boy

Say goodbye to all the others
Call it close and crunch the numbers
Wash your hands and wash your feet
Walk on water

Find me someone to blame
Find me somewhere to aim
And I don't know no right or wrong
A melody without a song
Show me the truth inside
Show me to stay alive
'Cause I don't know no right or wrong
A melody without a song

Dear boy
Can you tell me who will hold the blame now?
Where will our fingers point if not at you now?
Dear boy
Tell the wolves you're finally coming home now
Do what you are best at, burn it all down

Say goodbye to all the others
Call it close and crunch the numbers
Wash your hands and wash your feet
Walk on water

Find me someone to blame
Find me somewhere to aim
And I don't know no right or wrong
A melody without a song
Show me the truth inside
Show me to stay alive
'Cause I don't know no right or wrong
A melody without a song

You can't erase what has been done
You can forgive, you can move on
But we cannot escape the tide
Of our cruel mistress keeping time
You can't erase what has been done
You can forgive, you can move on
But we cannot escape the tide
Of our cruel mistress keeping time

Find me someone to blame
Find me somewhere to aim
And I don't know no right or wrong
A melody without a song
