

The Sacrifice

The Warning

Please don't hide from me
I see through the fake smile that you've been wearing around
Don't lie to me
I see through the facade that you're portraying
As everything starts to collide
You can't forget, though you have tried
Don't reject the darkness in your eyes

One more simple question
No one answers, no one mentions
The emotion, the commotion
That fills your every need, that fuels your fantasies

If you let this go much further
There'll be no turning back from me
I will do it, let me prove it
I'll show you what it means to be
So devoted, to live for it
It's in the air that you breathe
It's the sacrifice of life
To sacrifice it all, all
All, all
All, all

Please let me get close
You can't do it alone, you need a hand to hold
Please let me help
Tell me, aren't you sick of only having this
Guilt that eats you up inside?
This emptiness, this loss of life?
You know that you're running out of time

One more simple question
No one answers, no one mentions
The emotion, the commotion
That fills your every need, that fuels your fantasies

If you let this go much further
There'll be no turning back from me
I will do it, let me prove it
I'll show you what it means to be
So devoted, to live for it
It's in the air that you breathe
It's the sacrifice of life
To sacrifice it all, all

What if you could just let go?
I will lead, you just follow
All your thoughts of tomorrow
I'll make them disappear
Hand it over
All the pain will be mine to keep

If you let this go much further
There'll be no turning back from me
I will do it, let me prove it
I'll show you what it means to be

So devoted, to live for it
It's in the air that you breathe
It's the sacrifice of life
To sacrifice it all, all
All, all
All, all
