

XXI Century Blood

The Warning

We're the new generation, lost our salvation
Another problem to be solved
We're the groundbreakers, honey, living for the money
Twenty-first century blood
Immortal souls dying, empires are falling
We're just waiting to be crushed
Politicians trying, but we know they're lying
Every truth has been sold

Eh, eh-eh, yeah, eh-eh-eh-eh-eh
Yeah, eh-eh, yeah, eh-eh-eh-eh-eh

We make buildings when what we need are bridges
We're stuck within these walls
Everyone with blank faces trying to fill the blank spaces
That we left a long time ago

Hey, yeah
What will our future hold?
Will we regret our addiction to the rush?
Hey, yeah
We've always been crazy, so
Let's fly away
And roam through the world that is slowly burning in the flames

Eh-eh, yeah, eh-eh-eh-eh-eh
Yeah, eh-eh, yeah, eh-eh-eh-eh-eh

Everyone's in depression because of an obsession
With stereotypes around the world
Worldwide starvation, but in this situation
No one seems to care at all
Our communication replaced by animation
Television has control
Every question answered, internet demands us
To worship it like a God

Hey, yeah
What will our future hold?
Will we regret our addiction to the rush?
Hey, yeah
We've always been crazy, so
Let's fly away
And roam through the world that is slowly burning in the flames

Hey, yeah
What will our future hold?
Will we regret our addiction to the rush?
Hey, yeah
We've always been crazy, so
Let's fly away
And roam through the world that is slowly burning in the flames

Yeah, eh-eh, yeah, eh-eh-eh-eh-eh, yeah
