

Mars Sparkles Down On Me

The Wedding Present

So yeah I've got my brand new girlfriend,
And she's great in every way
And you've got your new lover there so I guess we're both ok
And I know that we've been through this
And we have to be apart
But the thought of him lying in our bed with you, well it still just breaks my heart

Mars sparkles down on me

He says he wants to meet me oh I'm sure he's genuine but how can i just shake his hand when it's been, all over your skin?

Mars sparkles down, on me

I should stop calling on a whim, but I wont I know I really should consider him, but I can't

Mars sparkles down on me
