

Hang On Love

The Wedding

If you're tired, love, rest your head.
If you're lonely, dear, we'll be your friend.
And when life goes down and all you know
Is torn from us and feeling low.

Hang on, love, I'm telling you to hang on love
Begging you to stay, begging you always.
I know you feel like giving in,
But won't you hang on love, I'm telling you to hang on
love
I'm begging you to wait, I'll be with you always,
This could be the best thing you ever had.

If you're scared, love, we're being there,
'cause you know the thoughts in your head.
And when life goes down and all you know
Is torn from us and feeling low.

Hang on, love, I'm telling you to hang on love
Begging you to stay, begging you always.
I know you feel like giving in,
But won't you hang on love, I'm telling you to hang on
love
I'm begging you to wait, I'll be with you always,
This could be the best thing you ever had.

Cannot turn.
Just tell me.
I've fallen away, fallen away, fallen
The time is just another way to die.

Hang on, love, I'm telling you to hang on love
Begging you to stay, begging you always.
I know you feel like giving in,
But won't you hang on love, I'm telling you to hang on
love
I'm begging you to wait, I'll be with you always,
This could be the best thing you ever had.
