

won't you come and take a ride with me i'll take you to all beautiful places that you've never been but you've always wanted to we're fighting against the mainstream against everything they tell us we should be we're striving to mold our lives by our dreams so ours dreams can become reality

won't you come and take a ride with me
we'll find our hearts on this lonely stretch of road and i will be here

we're trying to win our hearts back in a world where we just don't know who we are we're trying to win our hearts in a world where the others are the ones who wear the crown so follow your heart and you will find it on your own and it'll all become clear by the time we make it home and we'll always remember these talks that we've had

and i will be here
