

Rebound

The Wedding

Wonder why
and push all the questions to the back of your mind
You try and try to figure out
What this life's about
And when the pain will end
And when we can start again

Not enough time to try for a rebound
Look over and over it from the top down
Pick pick pick pick pick pick it up
Not giving up, that's true love

Oh heart of gold, your angel falling into my world unannounced
And try and try to figure out
Where I went wrong and confused
This pain with pleasure
What more is there to think about

We thought we were close to reaching the prize,
But we were further than we could have ever surmised
As our dreams crash and burn before our eyes,
Our dreams crash and burn before our eyes
The mother that stayed made a sacrifice,
So the family was loved, putting herself aside but it always seemed that part of her died and it always seemed that part of her...
