

Crocodile Tears

The Weeknd

I've been a crocodile my whole life
I just figured it out for myself
Everyone telling me didn't help
How can you tell me to be different
Then when I am different you will laugh at me instead?
How could you tell me to be different
Then when I am different you will laugh at me instead?
Ah, ooh

Crocodile tears are falling down my face
I want you to cry for me
I want you to be sorry
For the things that you've done
Made it hard for me to have fun
There's things that you've done
Crocodile sitting all alone
Painting nails the shade of pink
To match Princess Peach's cheek
Maybe they'll think I'm beautiful
Maybe I can trick them

I've been a crocodile my whole life
I tried to fit in but I always stand out
My claws are too sharp
My thoughts are too dark
And I keep eating all of my friends

Whoa
She's crying alone
The deceitful crocodile in the Nile

Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
How could you tell me to be different
Then when I am different you will laugh at me?
You will laugh at me
How?
