

Without a Warning

The Weeknd

Take me to a time
When I was young
And my heart could take the drugs and heartache without loss
But now my bones are frail
And my voice fails
And my tears fall without a warning either way

The crowd will scream, the crowd will scream my name
Even when the world wants me to fail
The crowd will scream, the crowd will scream my name
Woah, woah
And the crowd will feel, the crowd will feel my pain
Hope you'll love me 'til my final day
Even if it was in vain
Leave my guts all on the stage

You were thinking of-
Woah-woah
Teardrops come without a warning

Oh, yeah
I don't suppose tomorrow's coming, coming
I'ma follow through this time 'til the press might be lovin'
I'm stuck in a cycle, just wanna feel life, I'm the morning
I should've been sober, but I can't afford to be boring

'Cause the crowd will scream, the crowd will scream my name
Even when the world wants me to fail
The crowd will scream, the crowd will scream my name
Woah, woah
And the crowd will feel, the crowd will feel my pain
Hope you'll love me 'til my final day, yeah
Even if it was in vain
Leave my guts all on the stage

How will I know tomorrow's coming?
Especially when I always kissed the sky
Especially when I always chased the high
I don't suppose tomorrow's coming (How will I know it is?)
How will I know tomorrow's coming? (How I will I know it's coming?)
Especially when I always chased the high (When I chased it, baby)
Especially when they put me in the ground (They know they did)
I don't suppose tomorrow's coming (Hurry up, hurry up)
How will I know tomorrow's coming? (Hurry up, baby)
Especially when I always chased the high (Oh, oh)
Especially when they put me in the ground
I don't suppose tomorrow's coming
