

Harmony

The Weeks

When I can't see, she's standing, says she waits to speak
With dirty eyes and rose red cheeks
She says she waits to speak
So we'll be in a public place, where people meet
She's standing, says she waits to speak
And he said, "Harmony, if it is your real name, go ahead and tell us why you came. Tell us why you came."
Tell them I come from way up over that hill
It's where my father lives
It's where I was raised

He said God's gonna come
He said he's bringing flames and floods
They say he's gonna wash me up
Well he can't wash me up
He can't burn me up

When God's gonna come
They say he's bringing flames and floods
They say he's gonna wash me up
Well he can't wash me up
He can't burn me up

Well, Christ don't save
I'm sorry it'll never change
Baby, we were born to fade
I swear we're born to fade
And God's gonna come
No matter how far you run
Baby, we're setting suns
I swear we're setting suns
And he said, "Harmony, if it is your real name, go back from where you came. Tell 'em we can't help you"
Tell 'em God's gonna come
No matter how far you run
Baby, we're setting suns
I swear we're setting suns

He said God's gonna come
They said he's bringing flames and floods
They say he's gonna wash me up
Well he can't wash me up
He can't burn me up

When God's gonna come
They say he's bringing flames and floods
They say he's gonna wash me up
Well he can't wash me up
He can't burn me up

And he said "Harmony, if it is your real name. Go back from where you came.
Tell 'em we can't help you."
Tell 'em God's gonna come

When God's gonna come
Well he can't wash me up
He can't burn me up

When God's gonna come
Well he can't wash me up
He can't burn me up
