

Got to Get Away

The Whispers

Hey, baby
The situation dilutes
And it ain't no use
See, I've got to get away from you, baby
(Get up)
Time again it's been hard
Right from the very start
Baby, that's why it's breakin' my heart

Baby, I, oh, I
I got to get away from you now, baby
Oh, baby, hey, baby
I, oh, I got to get away from you now, baby
Hey, baby, you see, girl, hee...

Lemme tell you 'bout it, baby

Just like a gambler and his dice
All they do is sacrifice
And that's why I've got to get away
From you now, baby
(Get up)
Again it's been hard
Right from the very start
Baby, that's why you're breakin' my heart

Hey, baby, you know
That I would never mean it
Oh, very well
'Cause you're my one and only
You know what that means
Said, I'm never gonna give you up
Well, well
'Cause I got to get away from you, my girl
Let me make it clear
Do I have to spell it out for you

I, oh, I
I got to get away from you now, baby
Hey, baby, oh, baby
I, oh, I
Said I got to get away from you now, baby
Hey, baby, you see, girl, hee...

Girl, you'd better listen
When I tell you what I have to say
I know you know I love you
But I just got to get away
B-A-B-Y, so long

Lemme tell you 'bout it, baby

Just a gambler and his dice
All they do is sacrifice
And that's why I've got to get away
From you now, baby
(Get up)

Again it's been hard
Right from the very start
Baby, that's why you're breakin' my heart

Hey, baby, you know
That I would never mean it
Oh, very well
'Cause you're my one and only
You know what that means
Said, I'm never gonna give you up
Well, well
'Cause I got to get away from you, my girl
Let me make it clear
Do I have to spell it out for you

I, oh, I
I got to get away from you now, baby
Hey, baby, oh, baby

Said I got to get away from you now, baby
Hey, baby, you see, girl, hee...
